CINCINNATI, O., June 7.—Herman Dierkes, former Democratic political leader in Hamilton county, must serve five years in the federal penitentiary in Atlanta, Georgia, the United States circuit court of appeals having affirmed his conviction today.

Dierkes, accused under the espionage act, was alleged to have said, referring to an American soldier: "The poor slob. I would rather serve a term in the penitentiary than wear a uniform in Wilson's Wall Street war."

The court said that the evidence showed that Dierkes was pro-German, not only as to Great Britain and Germany, but as to the United States and Germany, and that when he uttered these words he entertained strong pro-German sympathies, and hoped and believed that Germany would win the war.

3 Executed For Disorders In Ireland

DUBLIN, June 7.—Three men convicted of participating in recent disorders in Ireland were executed here this morning. Edward Foley and Patrick Maher went to their doom for the murder of a royal Irish constabulary sergeant at Knockdown, while (unfortunate) William Mitchell was executed for the murder of Magistrate Dixon, of Duntlavin, County Wexford.

For the first time since executions began at Mount Joy prison last year the public was excluded from the inner square at the front entrance this morning while the executions were being carried out. Crowds assembled in the outer part of the jail grounds in the early morning hours, however, and sang hymns and recited prayers for Foley and Maher.

At 5:15 o'clock a warden placed a notice on the gate that Foley and Maher and Constable Mitchell had been executed.

Mysterious Shooting Of Pueblo Man

PUEBLO, COLO., June 7.—Mystery shrouds the death here late last night of Ernest E. Withers, prominent citizen of Pueblo, who while driving his automobile down Grand avenue, with his young son, Volie, sitting by his side, was killed instantly. The top of his head was blown away and Coroner Ray McCarthy is conducting an investigation to determine whether the shot that killed him was fired from outside the car or from inside. From the nature of the wound, the authorities are also acting on the theory that the weapon employed might have been a riot gun.

One of the first persons reaching the scene was a soldier who came running to investigate the commotion. It was Mr. Withers' oldest son.

Efforts were made by the American consular officials in this city, to have the men deported to the United States, but it was decided not to turn them over to United States authorities, but send them to Cuba.

LASKER, NEW CHAIRMAN OF SHIPPING BOARD, MAN OF SHARP BUSINESS JUDGMENT

BY DAVID LAWRENCE
(Copyright, 1921, by Times Pub. Co.)
WASHINGTON, June 6.—Albert D. Lasker, of Chicago, has accepted the chairmanship of the United States Shipping Board, President Harding first offered the place to Mr. Lasker a fortnight ago, but the latter came to Washington and urged the president to appoint Walter C. Teagle, president of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey. Mr. Lasker believed that Teagle knew more about ships and the particular problems of the government than anybody else and was even willing to act as an assistant to Mr. Teagle in order to persuade the latter to take the job.

Teagle Prevented from Coming
The president yielded to Mr. Lasker's advice and made a final effort to get Mr. Teagle. Everything was arranged satisfactorily when the man who was to take over Mr. Teagle's work in the Standard Oil company advised a prolonged trip to Europe. Mr. Teagle couldn't therefore leave his work and declined the position.

Mr. Harding consequently fell back on Albert Lasker and insisted that the latter accept as originally planned. Mr. Lasker admitted that he didn't know a thing about ships but the president was of the opinion that technical assistance could be procured so long as the man at the head of the shipping board was an organizer and a business man.

Can Settle Tangled Problems
Mr. Lasker is president and owner of the Lord and Thomas Advertising Agency but is one of the principal owners in many big business enterprises. He is a part owner of the Mitchell Car company, Quaker Oats Van Camp, the Chicago Cubs Baseball club and several other companies. He is author of the famous Lasker plan by which the warfare in baseball which developed last winter was finally settled. He is Lasker who first suggested Judge Landis as the arbiter of baseball disputes and he has the happy faculty of being able to settle tangled problems without much fuss or feathers.

Lasker Stood Behind Hays
Throughout the last three years, Mr. Lasker has stood beside Will Hays, a sort of man behind the guns. His advice and judgment which won him millions of dollars of reward in the business world were turned to politics. He made several trips around the country with Will Hays when the latter first started out to win Congress for the Republicans early in 1918. He was a staunch supporter of Hiram Johnson for president and is said to have financed the latter's campaign at Chicago. After the convention, however, Lasker alongside of Hays, continued his work for Republican success and was the genius of the Republican.

To Prosecute Leaders In Race Riots

TULSA, Okla., June 7.—The first step toward prosecution of alleged leaders of the race riots and subsequent burning of the negro district here last week with a cost of $2 lives was taken today with the filing of charges against K. H. Stratford, negro and former hotel proprietor, and three other negroes, none of whom is in custody. They are charged with rioting.

Extradition papers for Stratford, who is in Independence, Kansas, were forwarded by the county attorney to Governor Robertson, who was asked to make a requisition on Governor Allen of Kansas, for the return of the negro. Stratford has refused to return to Tulsa.

Instructions for the grand jury called to convene were being prepared today by District Judge Middleton. The state investigation was expected to get under way tomorrow under the direction of S. P. Freeling, attorney general.

Another angle of what led up to the first shooting last Tuesday night developed today when Tolly J. Elliott, proprietor of the largest negro store in Tulsa, declared at a meeting of the ministerial alliance that he telephoned Mayor Evans at 9 o'clock that evening that an excited crowd was gathering in the negro quarter. He asserted that Mayor Evans replied he was fully in touch with the situation through the police department and that the police had the situation well in hand. Mayor Evans later said he had no recollection of the telephone call.

Orders have been issued by the police department that beginning Wednesday morning all negroes found on the street without identification cards will be arrested and placed in a detention camp.

Reuben Horchow One Of Zionist Officers Resigning Following Repudiation Of Administration

CLEVELAND, O., June 7.—Repudiation of the administration of the officers of the American Zionist organization by the twenty-fourth annual convention early today resulted in the resignation of Judge Julian W. Mack, of Chicago, President, and six other officers of the organization and thirty-five of the officers and members of the executive committee. Peter J. Schweitzer, treasurer of the organization, was the only incumbent to retain his position.

The resignations came at the end of a long night session which ran into early morning hours and were announced from the floor by Judge Mack after the convention had voted 153 to 71 to disapprove the president's annual report of his stewardship. Besides Judge Mack, American Zionist organization officials, who relinquished their offices are:

Justice Louis D. Brandeis, of Washington, honorary president; Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of New York, honorary vice president; Harry Friedman, of Baltimore, and Nathan Straus, New York, vice presidents; Jacob De Haas, secretary of the Palestine department, and Reuben Horchow, assistant treasurer, and acting secretary of the organization. Horchow is secretary and all except Justice Brandeis are members of the executive committee.

Among executive committee members who resigned are: Maurice L. Ayner, Pittsburgh; Sol S. Rosenblum, Pittsburgh; Abba H. Silver, Cleveland, and David W. Simons, Detroit.

In contrast to the many demonstrations which have taken place repeatedly since the opening of the convention Sunday afternoon during many heated arguments, there was extreme quiet when the vote was announced. This

Tin Plate Mill Burns; Huge Loss

PITTSBURGH, PA., June 7.—Loss by fire which partially destroyed the plant of the McKeesport Tin Plate Co., at McKeesport, a suburb, late last night, was estimated at $3,000,000 by officials of the company early today.

The fire starting in the box factory of the Nuffer Gearing Company, spread to the machine shop and tin house of the plant and was not brought under control until an early hour this morning. The plant is said to be one of the largest in the world, having 44 mills and employing normally 3,000 men. Approximately 1,500 men will be thrown out of work temporarily as a result of the fire, officials said.

Damage sustained by the Nuffer Company will amount to $200,000, it was said.

Comet May Miss Us Ten Million Miles

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., June 7.—Winnecke's comet, the expected near approach of which to the earth this month has caused much comment, will probably come within ten million miles of us, according to information received at the Harvard college observatory from astronomers in various parts of the world, who are studying its motion closely.

The comet will make its nearest approach to the sun on June 13 and will be at its brightest at about the same time. It is doubtful, however, whether it will be visible to the naked eye, as it will be of approximately sixth magnitude.

Several astronomers predict a meteoric shower on June 27 as a result of the comet's approach.

Conviction Will Stand

ROYAL IRISH INFANTRY TAKE CONTROL OF UPPER SILESIA TOWN

OWIELEN, SILESIA, June 7.—Detachments of the royal Irish infantry, the first British troops to cross the lines established by Polish insurgents in Upper Silesia, detained at Gliwicz. They assumed control of the city, and will be in charge of the garrisoning and policing of the place in future.

As the troops, consisting of one battalion, with full field equipment, entered Gliwicz, northwest of Katowice, they encountered the first Polish outposts. Machine guns had been trained on the station by the Poles, but when the British appeared the Poles withdrew and were not seen again.

While these troops were on their way to the storm center of Upper Silesia, General Van Hofer, commander of German defense organization, bluntly declined to comply with the French ultimatum to withdraw his forces from the front between Krappitz and Kosen, where the Poles have been driven back for several miles. He promised, however, to prevent a further advance by the Germans, "unless provoked by the Poles."

It has been learned by allied officials here that from 3,000 to 4,000 Germans who were liberated in the territory taken over by the defense organization, volunteered to serve with the Germans, and that each man produced a weapon with which to fight against the Poles.

It is learned from British sources that the probable plan for the pacification of Upper Silesia will be to garrison all the large industrial towns in the plebiscite area with British troops. It is said that sufficient forces are available for this service, and that in addition, local police forces will be formed "of citizens of known good character." The British, it is understood, will gradually relinquish the policing of the district to this organization.

The British troops will probably extend their authority northward through the occupied area, disarming the Poles as they proceed.

Mexican Reply Is Sent To The President

MEXICO CITY, June 7.—Mexico's answer to the communication from the United States relative to recognition of the present administration in this country has been delivered to George T. Sumnerlin, American charge d'affaires in this city. This information was received from President Obregon last night.

Speaking with newspaper men, the president said a communication had been given Mr. Sumnerlin for transmission to Washington, and he added that the notes passed between Washington and this city constituted a "mere exchange of ideas on international topics." He declined, however, to make public the text of Mexico's answer and Mr. Sumnerlin refused to comment upon the president's statement.

Mr. Horchow is expected here this week to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Horchow, and other relatives and friends. For the past year he has been prominently identified with the Zion movement with headquarters in New York.

PARLIAMENT OF NORTHERN IRELAND IS OPENED

BLIFAST, IRELAND, June 7.—The parliament of northern Ireland, elected last month under the new home rule measure, was opened this morning amid impressive scenes in the council chamber of the city hall here.

The ceremony occurred in the presence of a distinguished gathering. None of the Nationalists or Sinn Fein members elected to the parliament were present, as the forty Unionist members took their seats and proceeded to the organization of the house.

Hugh O'Neill, son of Lord O'Neill, was unanimously elected speaker, and Sir James Craig, the premier, announced the following cabinet:

Home Secretary—Sir Dawson Bates. Minister of Finance—H. M. Pollock. Minister of Education—The Marquis of Londonderry. Minister of Labor—J. M. Andrews. Minister of Agriculture—Hon. E. A. Archdale.

Today's ceremonies, although colorful and imposing, seemed to attract little attention from the people of this city. They apparently were awaiting the state opening of the parliament on June 22, when it is expected King George will be present. The event, which may have a profound influence upon the future history of Ireland, did not, therefore, have the setting that might have been expected by those who planned it.

Elaborate police precautions against disorders had been taken and many persons against whom there were suspicions were placed under arrest on Sunday and Monday.

Grandview Revival News

Last evening the subject was "Future Eternal Punishment of the Wicked." The Bible teaches it, so we must believe it. There are preachers and teachers, teaching today that there is no eternal punishment and that it is ignorance to believe in a lake of fire and brimstone. The last chapter of Revelation leaves all the wicked in the lake of fire that burneth with brimstone. But these fellows must have a Bible with a 23rd chapter that gets them all out. I prefer to leave the Bible just as it is. "These shall go away into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into life everlasting." The same Greek word (aiwionos) which means "everlasting" is used to express the duration of the joy of the righteous and is used to express the duration of the wicked—"aiwionos" means everlasting, forever, endless in duration. Miss Goldie Lewis, Miss Mabel Lewis, Miss Mildred Malone and Mrs. F. W. Hasselman sang a very beautiful quartette.

The subject tonight at seven is "Two Hells and How to Keep Out of Them." The meeting will close either tonight or tomorrow night. Come one and all. You should hear this message.

Two Constables Admit Taking Distributor From Car; Fined

Admitting guilt of overstepping their authority in removing parties from the automobile of Deputy Sheriff George Ketter, Constables Tom Woods and John Wolfe, of Munn's Run, were fined $100 and costs each by Judge Sprague in Municipal court Tuesday afternoon on charges of petit larceny, but the court suspended $90 of the fine in each case and allowed the defendants to go with a stern warning to be more careful in the future.

The hearing disclosed that the constables removed the distributor from Ketter's machine when they spotted it standing near the N. & W. depot at Sciotoville a few nights ago. The officers in their zeal to run down offenders, thinking the car belonged to someone on mischief bent.

Woods and Wolfe are the two guards of the peace that have been showing much activity in recent weeks of apprehending joy-riders and other offenders, that frequent the Munn's Run hill road late hours at night.

B—The Eastland Weekly News.
C—Mixed Redwoods—A Variety Comedy.
D—Al Christie Presents T. Roy Barnes in "See My Lawyer."
Robertson-Cole served up another treat at the Eastland Theatre last night when "See My Lawyer," a super-special picture starring T. Roy Barnes, was presented. Here is a comedy-drama of the first water with Mr. Barnes establishing himself as one of the screen's best artists. The photoplay is an adaptation of the play of the same name by Max Marcin, which scored a hit on Broadway six eral years ago, with Mr. Barnes in the leading role. The film production was directed by Al Christie.

The story of the picture is the funniest ever, but you've got to see it to appreciate it. In part it tells of a young man who is trying to start an artificial rubber company. An inventor who claims he can produce the goods has interested him and he is out to bust the rubber trust. About midway in the proceedings he discovers the inventor is a faker and he is advised to sham insanity in order to escape a jail sentence. There are a million funny situations and T. Roy Barnes handles all in a masterly manner.

At the Exhibit Theatre Tonight Franklin Farnum Will Be the Attraction In "The Galloping Devil" The First of a Series of 5 Reel Pictures. Produced By William A. Selig.

A Tale Of The Western Plains, The Heart Of A Hero, The Faithfulness Of A Woman's Love and The Unavailing Hate of a Deep-Dyed Villain.

SPECIAL SPECIAL SPECIAL
"Blue Sunday" A Great Comedy Different From The Average—Starring Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran. Don't Miss This One.

Franklin Farnum, who is to appear at the Exhibit Theatre in "The Galloping Devil" for a limited engagement, is the possessor of the well-earned reputation of being the greatest film in pictures.

In "The Galloping Devil" Farnum plays the part of a smiling knight in the sage brush. Andy of the Flying I. It seems that Andy is much given to the telling of a good story, and the better truth that the story possesses, the better the story is.

In this picture Farnum can lie as fast as he can gallop and things are very much up in the air for awhile, but before the story is over he uncovers much devilry, saves the heroine in regular Wild West style, and with the blushing cow girl as his bride lives happy ever afterwards.

The picture was produced by Col. William N. Selig, and it is said that it is among the most ambitious pictures of its kind that has ever been made.

"The Galloping Devil," which is the first of a series of Western pictures in which this popular young star is to appear, was received in New York and other large centres with praise and commendation.

For Its Attraction Tonight Only, The Temple Theatre Will Show Dorothy Gish In "Atta Boy's Last Race." One of the Best and Most Thrilling Stories of the Race Track Ever Made—Also A Good Harold Lloyd Comedy.

It is a good thing for Dorothy Gish that the Triangle-Fine, five reel drama, "Atta Boy's Last Race," in which Miss Gish plays the leading role, and of Sue Kean, is the story of a horse and not the story of an elephant. Otherwise, Dorothy might have an elephant on her hands, instead of a race-horse.

The hero of the picture is Atta Boy himself, a race-horse. Atta Boy, off the stage, is a race-horse as well as in the picture. This is his first appearance in picture-plays, as the angle hired him at the close of a successful season on the Tia Juera track. Miss Gish, in the play, says Atta Boy has gone lame in a race has to take and nurse him back to a complete recovery. The picture was weeks in the making, and every day during those weeks Dorothy rode Atta Boy.

The love that she was supposed to feel for him in the picture began the real thing during the course of the picture's production, and when it came time to return the horse to his real owner, the proceedings struck a snag. Miss Gish wouldn't let him go. In short, she bought Atta Boy for her very own, after a pretty time to get the owner to sell him.

A. R. Johnson Jr., Receives Appointment

IRONTON, June 7.—The many local friends of Attorney A. R. Johnson, Jr., will be interested in the announcement that he has been offered and has accepted a position as an assistant in the office of Attorney-General Harry M. Daugherty at Washington.

While at Washington last week on business for the bridge company, Mr. Johnson met Mr. D. C. Davies, and together they called on Mr. Daugherty. The Attorney-General gave them a very cordial reception and during the course of the interview, offered Mr. Johnson a position as an assistant in his office. Mr. Johnson took the offer with advice and yesterday decided to accept the appointment and expects to report in Washington for duty on June 15th.

The appointment of Mr. Johnson, while in a great measure of a personal nature, is also a merited recognition of the active interest taken by the appointee and his father, Hon. A. R. Johnson, in the candidacy of President Harding in the primary campaign in Ohio and also the efforts put forth by A. R. Johnson in the convention campaign which resulted in the nomination of President Harding. That he will make good in the government service, none of his friends have the slightest doubt. Splendidly educated in law and with five years' practical experience under the tutelage of such an able attorney as his father, he will carry to Washington as strong qualifications as any appointee under the present administration.

Mr. Davidson is one of the city's best known citizens has announced his candidacy for the nomination of city treasurer, subject to the Republican primaries to be held in August. He says he will make a vigorous campaign and expects to be returned a winner.

Mr. Davidson in his statement said: I will be a candidate for the office of City Treasurer subject to the decision of the Republican voters at the coming primary August 9, 1921. My plea is that I have been a life long Republican, believing in the fairness and time honored principle of the party to give but two terms to one candidate. I promise that if nominated and elected I will not ask for a third term.

IRONTON, June 7.—Harold Garner and his wife, Marie Garner, have brought action in Common Pleas court against the C. & O. Railway Co., asking damages in the aggregate sum of $500.00, through Attorney Louis Schneider.

The plaintiffs in their respective petitions, allege that on July 4, 1920, they boarded one of the defendant company's trains at Ashland, Ky., to go to Olive Hill, Ky. They were put in a "Jim Crow" car reserved for colored people, but this car was invaded by a number of drunken white men, who were noisy and used obscene language and the train crew ordered them out of the car and into the smoker, where white men were smoking and using bad language.

Bringing the Oil Refinery Closer to You

THE advent of the first steel tank car in 1871 marked a forward step in the marketing of petroleum products. Built to prevent loss by leakage and to deliver oils in greater volume, the tank car has also shortened the distance between refinery and consumer.

During fifty years of refining and marketing this company has directed its efforts at perfecting a distribution system that would create short cuts, quicken deliveries and give the consumer dependable products at a fair price. Today such a distribution is in operation, and the tank car is its starting point.

Hundreds of tank cars run regularly from the big Cleveland and Toledo refineries to 300 convenient distributing stations throughout the state. Thus the stations are able to supply Red Crown Gasoline to the people of Ohio with speed, safety and economy.

Red Crown Gasoline is famous for its complete chain of boiling points. It vaporizes quickly and burns up completely. Put Red Crown in your tank and you are sure of quick pickups, strong acceleration, sustained power, and big mileage per gallon.

Woman Makes Serious Charge Against Pike County Official

Harry Beach, superintendent of the Pike County Infirmary, located at Idaho, was arrested May 31 and arraigned before Squire S. H. Cutler at Diketon on a charge of alleged assault and rape, the charges being preferred by Mrs. Maria Rose, upon whom the alleged assault is supposed to have been made May 21 at her home near Idaho.

Mr. Beach waived examination and was bound over to the grand jury under $500 bond. He severed his release when Charles Vulgamore went upon his bond.

According to Squire Cutler, the case was put in the hands of the grand jury several days after the alleged assault and that jury did not return an indictment. When the grand jury failed to indict Mrs. Rose preferred the charges in Squire Cutler's court at Diketon. Squire Cutler issued the warrant for the man's arrest. The alleged attack on Mrs. Rose, who is 24 years of age, and has three children, according to her statement, occurred about ten o'clock the night of May 21st, while Mr. Rose was attending a lodge meeting at Ladham. The Rose home is about a mile and a half from the infirmary. Beach is also married and has several children. He denies the charges.

Local business men denied reports they were contemplating buying the Emmet distillery at Waverly.

A midnight fire destroyed about $10,000 worth of property at Sciotoville, including the Thompson Saw and Planing Mill, and adjoining properties, all owned by A. W. Thompson, of Kentucky.

A successful and delightful mid-summer society event was the platform dance at the Doty home on Greenlawn Heights. More than fifty couples were present and music was furnished by the Euclid Mandolin club.

About seventy-five colored excursionists brought down by the Chevalier from Proctorville spent several hours taking in the sights of the city.

Rudy Kountz installed a bowling alley in the rear of his place of business on West Second street.

The River City band boys, resplendent in their new uniforms, gathered on the post-office steps and had a large group picture taken.

Reports Made To Health Board

The City Board of Health held its regular monthly session at the Municipal court room yesterday afternoon.

A report was received from Health Commissioner Dr. O. D. Tuttle for the month of May which shows that the health of the city has been reasonably fair. The cases reported were: Diphtheria 2; measles 2; scarlet fever 6; smallpox 3; pulmonary tuberculosis 2; mumps 3; whooping cough 2; typhoid fever 5; pneumonia 1.

The inspector also reported that he had made 179 inspections during the month and had approved and issued 67 permits. His collections for permits during the month was $190.50 and amount received for license $125, making a total of $315.50.

Naval Bill Goes To Conference

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—The house sent the naval appropriation bill to conference today without instructing its conferees how they should vote on the Borah disarmament amendment.

Democrats demanded the right to vote on the Borah proposal, rather than on the Porter subcommittee con-curring in the declared purpose of the president to call an international armament conference.

There was applause from both sides when Representative Burton, Republican, Ohio, expressed the belief that not one million of the $98,000,000 added to the bill by the senate would be accepted by the house.

May Outline Mexican Policy

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—Formal announcement of the policy of the American government with regard to Mexico is expected to be made late today by the state department on the basis of cabinet discussion today of the reply of President Obregon to the American message outlining conditions under which the United States would consider recognition of the southern republic. Secretary Hughes took the Obregon reply to the cabinet meeting which was devoted largely to a discussion of this document and relations with the Dominican republic. It was indicated afterwards that developments in regard to the Dominican republic also might be expected shortly.

BEFORE AND AFTER CHILDBIRTH

Mrs. Williams Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Kept Her in Health

Overlook, O.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me both before and after my baby was born. I suffered with backache, headache, was generally run down and weak. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers and decided to try it. Now I feel fine, take care of my two boys and do my own work. I recommend your medicine to anyone who is ailing. You may publish my testimonial if you think it will help others."—Mrs. WILLIAMS, Overlook, Ohio.

For more than forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been restoring women to health who suffered from irregularities, displacements, backache, headache, bearing-down pains, nervousness or "the blues." "Today there is hardly a town or hamlet in the United States wherein some woman does not realize that she has been made well by it. That is why Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is now recognized as the standard remedy for such ailments.

POLICE NEWS

When Judge Sprague in Municipal court Tuesday denied his application for a new trial, "Big Pete" Harris, widely known North End negro, convicted a few days ago of a charge of unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor, through his attorney, Horace J. Small, gave notice of prosecuting error proceedings to the Common Pleas court and the defendant was released from jail under $1000 bond.

Harris strenuously denied the evidence of Mrs. Rosa Tally, colored, on which it is claimed he was convicted. The woman testified that she was in the company of Little May Hill when the latter bought a half pint of "white mule" from "Big Pete" last Sunday.

Simple and Convincing. Film actresses work hard. They may not have late nights, but they have early mornings and they are often up while other folks are turning over in bed for another nap. "What do you do in your leisure?" a cinema actress was asked. "Nothing," she replied. "How sensible," was the rejoinder. "It isn't sense, it's necessity. I never do anything in my leisure, because I never have any leisure to do it in."

BIG JULY 4TH CELEBRATION

A real, dyed-in-the-wool, old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration, with a greased pole to climb, a greased pig to catch, balloon ascensions, ball game, athletic events, boxing, etc., will be enjoyed by Portsmouth folks this year. Messrs. J. F. Potts and F. D. Voorhees are the men behind the guns in the endeavor to have this section a gala day on the Fourth, and they have selected Coney Island as the scene of the outing.

Only a tentative program has been arranged at present, but the promoters are sure of the following attractions:

10:30—Balloon ascension.
11:00—Marathon race, foot races for high school boys and girls. Any high school girl or boy eligible. First second and third prizes.
11:45—Greased pig and greased pole contests.
12:00—Picnic Dinner.
12:30—Second balloon ascension.
1:00—Baseball game.
2:00—All-star boxing exhibitions, thirty two rounds.

This is only a partial list of the attractions, as Managers Potts and Voorhees are still busy signing up contracts, but do not wish to announce any event until they are sure of having it.

Ladies will be admitted free to the grounds when accompanied by an escort. All children will also be admitted free under fifteen years of age. It is planned to make this a big family affair, where husbands may take their entire families with little expense, and where sweethearts may accompany their "best fellows." Police protection will be afforded all, and the best of order is guaranteed. Nothing will be allowed on the grounds that would offend any lady.

If this celebration proves a success it is planned to make the Fourth of July celebration at Portsmouth an annual event for this entire section.

ACIDS IN STOMACH CAUSE INDIGESTION

Medical authorities state that nearly nine-tenths of the cases of stomach trouble, indigestion, sourness, burning, gas, bloating, nausea, etc., are due to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach and not as some believe to a lack of digestive juices. The delicate stomach lining is irritated, digestion is delayed and food sours, causing the disagreeable symptoms which every stomach sufferer knows so well. Artificial digestants are not needed in such cases and may do real harm. Try laying aside all digestive aids and instead get from any druggist a few ounces of Bilexated Macevins and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after eating. This sweetens the stomach, prevents the formation of excess acid and there is no sourness, gas or pain. Bilexated Magnesia (in powder or tablet form—never liquid or milk) is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and is the most efficient form of magnesia for stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.—Advertisement.

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS
NEW YORK, June 7—Initial prices in the stock market today pointed to a continuance of yesterday's selling pressure. This was based in part on further undercurrent of foreign exchange rates. High grade rails, oils, motors, shippings and numerous unclassified shares were lower by liberal fractions to 1 1/2 points. Especial heaviness was shown by Reading, Texas
Pacific, Mexican and Pan-American
Petroleum, General Asphalt Atlantic
Gulf, American International, Cuba
Cane Sugar, United States Rubber, International Paper and the several leather issues.

Closing out of speculative accounts and further calling of loans by banks provoked heavy liquidation during the morning. Sales in the first two hours approximated 300,000 shares, the entire list establishing lower prices.
Losses of 1 to 4 points attended the extensive offerings of oils, motors and equipments, sugars, shippings and rails. Among the latter were Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville and Nashville at recessions of 3/4 to 1 1/2 points.
New York Airbrake, International Paper, Famous Players and several of the express company shares were included among the weak specialties.
Foreign exchange steadied slightly, but only a moderate supply of call money was obtainable at 7 1/2 per cent.
Extreme losses of one to five points in standard shares and five to ten points in speculative issues measured the range of today's stock market.
Sales approximated 1,100,000 shares.
The closing was irregular.

And Provisions
CHICAGO
CHICAGO, June 7—Wheat declined in price today in a large degree to excellent weather conditions prevailing over the greater part of the winter crop belt. Reports that harvesting had commenced in Kansas, tended also to give an advantage to the bears.
Trade was fairly active. Opening quotations, which varied from 1c lower to 1/2c advance, with July 12 1/2 @ 1.20 and September 1 1/2 @ 1.17, were followed by market orders all around.
The close was unsettled 1/2c net lower to a like advance, with July 12 1/2 @
1.20 and September 1 1/2 @ 1.17.
Corn was easier in line with wheat although rural offerings of corn remained small. After opening 1/2c to 1/4c lower, including July at 64 1/2 @
64 1/2, the market underwent a further rise.

Outs paralleled the action of other grain, starting at 1/4c off to a like advance, with July 39 1/2 @ 39 1/2, and then showing a general decline.
Higher quotations on hogs carried provisions up.

The close was heavy 1/2c to 1 1/2c net lower, with July 63 1/2 @ 64 and September 65 @ 65 1/2.

Conviction Is Sustained

CINCINNATI, O., June 7.—The telephone operators' strike at Cleveland and the cutting of the wires leading to the city hall in that city were recalled today when the United States circuit of appeals affirmed the conviction of Harry Davidson, James H. Smith, Richard Gavigan and Thomas Prendergast.

The men, who are electrical workers, were charged with having cut the wires and interfered with the sending of messages over the lines which at the time were under the control of the government. Davidson and Smith were sentenced to serve fifteen months in the Atlanta penitentiary and Gavigan and Prendergast to six months in jail. John A. Moore, a fifth man indicted in the case, was acquitted by the jury that convicted the other men.

New Boston Buys Building; To Be Converted Into Engine House

New Boston Council last night purchased the Lawrence Fitch building on Galbraith street, just across the alley east of the mayor's office, the purchase price being $9,000. The ordinance calls for a bond issue of $10,000, the remaining $1,000 left after Fitch is paid, to be used in making repairs to the building, which is now fitted for a picture show. Mr. Fitch had made many changes in the building and was planning to start a picture show in a few weeks when he offered the building to the village as an engine house.

The village recently purchased a modern fire truck and it was necessary to have a new engine house. Only a few changes to the front of the theatre building will be made at this time as the new fire fighting machine is expected early in July.

Plans for the storm and sanitary sewer between Harrisonville avenue and Lakeview avenue were discussed. The engineer had plans for an 18 inch sewer but it was thought that a larger sewer should be constructed. New

Negro Woman Shot While In Garage At Home of Mrs. S. P. Fetter, Ashland

ASHLAND, KY., June 7.—While examining a pistol early Sunday morning Mrs. Irene Arles, 24, colored, was accidentally shot through both legs when the pistol was discharged in the hands of John Dorsey, 30, colored houseman for Mrs. S. P. Fetter, as they were in Dorsey's room in the Fetter garage on 16th and Montgomery streets.

According to Dorsey's statement today to an independent reporter, he and the colored woman and several other friends had been out for a ride, returning to his room about 4:30 a. m. Sunday. They picked up his 38 caliber pistol and began examining it. As Dorsey was explaining how it worked, it was discharged and the bullet took effect in the woman's left leg, piercing it and entering the right leg.

She was taken in a touring car driven by George Weatherford, colored, an employee of the Fetter home, to her boarding house on 18th and Front street. An ambulance was called and she was removed to the Kings Daughters' hospital where she is today.

Mrs. Arles' husband is employed by Gatewood and Langhorne, contractors and they had been rooming at the Morgan Hotel, colored, on Front street. Their home was originally near Hanging Rock, Ohio.

She stated to the police Sunday that the shooting was accidental and absolved Dorsey of all blame for the affair.

Leaders Are Showing The Way

NEW YORK, June 7.—Managers Jobb, of Detroit, and Speaker, of Cleveland, set good examples to their players yesterday. The Tiger leader showed his men that even Babe Ruth's batting stunt was within his range and batted on his eighth home run of the season. Two of Cobb's players, Drouss and Blue, followed suit. Speaker returned to the Indian lineup as a regular and made four hits. The world's champions outbatted Boston, 13 hits to nine, but lost, 7 runs to 6.

A peculiar pitcher's battle was engaged in by "Dixie" Davis, of the St. Louis Americans, and "Rip" Collins, of New York. The Brown pitcher allowed but two hits and walked eight men, while the Yankee twirler yielded three hits in seven innings and made a wild pitch, both of which figured in the scoring of the visitors' winning runs. He was relieved by Sheehan, who was pounded for three more runs in the ninth.

French Champ "Tender Hearted"

MANHASSET, N. Y., June 7.—Though he is known in his native country as "strong heart," because of the indomitable spirit and determination that has marked his long fighting career, Georges Carpentier is now known as "tender heart" in Manhasset.

One afternoon recently when Georges was resting in an easy chair on the lawn a tattered figure appeared at the gate. Carpentier went to the fence and asked the man his troubles. The man said he was hungry. Georges called the chef, who dished up a hearty meal. The French champion found a loose dollar or two, and bowed his new friend to the gate.

DEMPSEY TO HAVE ADVANTAGE IN WEIGHT

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., June 7.—There will be a difference in weight of about 20 pounds when Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier meet in their battle for the world's heavyweight championship match in Jersey City, July 2. Dempsey said today that he planned to scale exactly 190 pounds in the ring. If he succeeds in keeping his weight at that notch he will be three pounds heavier than he ever has weighed for a fight before. When he won the title from Jess Willard at Toledo, two years ago, Dempsey scaled exactly 187 pounds. He weighed 185 pounds when he defeated Billy Miska at Benton Harbor, Mich., last Labor day, and 182 pounds when he met Bill Brennan in New York last winter. "I am growing a bit and I am gaining my weight accordingly," Dempsey said. "I think I will be at my best at 190 pounds, and will be able to box at top speed. Carpentier, I understand, will weigh about 170 pounds." With the match less than four weeks away, Dempsey still is within seven pounds of the weight he hopes to reach. The champion did no boxing yesterday and probably will not put on the gloves until Saturday. He went through a fast work-out, however.

Leonard Bests Rocky Kansas

Lightweight Champion Benny Leonard defended his title against Rocky Kansas in their 12 round go in Newark, N. J., last night.

Leonard cleverly outpointed his opponent in eight of the twelve rounds, one was even and Kansas had the fourth round. They fought every minute of the way and it was one of the greatest lightweight battles ever staged in the East. It was Leonard's first fight since his recent illness. He was fast as a flash and had Kansas in distress in the closing round. Thirty thousand fans saw the scrap.

BOWLERS BANQUET A REAL AFFAIR

With all rivalry wiped out and a spirit of good fellowship prevailing, the members of the Masonic Bowling League, the oldest organization of its kind in this part of Ohio, met in annual banquet session at the Washington Hotel Monday evening, where they held forth until the clock on the tower struck 12. It was the best meeting, the best feed, the best time the members ever enjoyed and the unanimity of action that characterized the business session that followed the heels of the banquet, showed the members were of one mind in their efforts to have a smooth running machine for the season of 1921-22. W. E. Clayton, the real Beau Brummel of the league—well, ask Bill to show it. Dr. Coburn is especially proud of his—as a reminder of those happy days of youth. And so on down the line, from "Doc" Baughman's whistling pipe to Joe Updegraff's "sassy" baby.

And then came the real prizes of the evening, Clarence Elwell "Link" Nodder—name spelled in full for identification purposes—was called to the floor and on behalf of the league, presented with a handsome briar pipe as a reward for his prowess. He completed the season with an average of 174, thus winning the championship. The pipe he will "hit" this summer and fall and dream dreams of the conquering hero. "Link" is a modest sort of a fellow, a high class bowler and a real sport through and through. Were he not such a real fellow, the chap on this end of the typewriter would come up to the bank and clean house—all because of that trick fountain pen that was selected with so much care and with malice aforethought by the champion. That and the "trophies" will live forever—green in the memory of the recipient.

E. A. Clare, anchor man for the Royals, was given a very pretty stick pin for making the single high score of the season, 245. The pin is a real beauty and suits Earl's complexion admirably.

The Royals, pennant winners for the season, were presented with a pretty blue pennant, with the following words in white letters: "Royals, pennant winners of the Masonic Bowling League, Season 1920-21." The individual prizes for the members of the Royals were solid gold cuff links. On behalf of the team, all gifts for the Royals were accepted by Captain William Hazelbeck. The members of the Royals are as follows: Captain William Hazelbeck, Earl Reinhard, Dr. Kuechly, Captain W. J. Keyes and Salem Shaw. The latter was unavoidably detained at home.

Then it came to the business session of the meeting, it was resolved practically unanimously that the present board of directors select the teams for next year, and that said teams meet and organize by the elec-

Hand Defeat To Selbyites

TEAM	W.	L.	Pct.

GAMES THIS WEEK
 Tuesday, June 7—N. & W. vs. Steel Plant.
 Wednesday, June 8—Solvay vs. Excessor.
 Thursday, June 9—N. & W. vs. Central Labor.
 Friday, June 10—Solvay vs. Selby.
 Saturday, June 11—Steel Plant vs. Excessor.

Using their paddles with telling effect enabled the Central labor outfit to hang up its first victory of the season Monday evening when they took the Selby Arch Preservers down the line at the Findlay street yard to the tune of 12 to 3. Incidentally the losers moved up on even terms with the gang of Manager Joe Freeman in the league standing and the handsome victory somewhat alleviates the crushing defeat handed the Herder crowd by the same arch enemy on the occasion of a former conflict.

The savage hitting of the Labor lads was the feature of the contest, singles and doubles and even triples rolling off their bats in such profusion that the archers completely swamped the enemy before the combat was but a few minutes old.

After the Selby's were retired runners in the first stanza the wall-poppers got after Rogers, who started on the mound for the shoemakers, Floyd Smith and Dunham pulling out three cushioned swats and Cooper and Monk crashed out single and three tallies were over before the enemy had time to think it over. This was enough for Rogers and Mowery was trotted out and he got by for one lining although Freds smashed a lucious triple only to be caught napping off the bag by a snap throw from Catcher Weber and ended. The follow got busy with their war sticks again in the third inning and a fat round at the expense of Mr. Mowery, who was roughed in and was sent to the stable after two doubles, a single and triple produced four runs. Fannin was then brought in from center field and two more counters were added to the sum total before the smoke of the attack had cleared away. He finished it out in four shapes and the Labor boys counted one in the fourth when Monk, first up, walked and scampered to third on Collis' miff of Edwards' assist. Webb's roller to short and touched the pan while Webb was being thrown out stealing. The last two scores came over in the fifth, bringing the count up to an even dozen. Shaffer muffed Grimm's easy fly to center for a starter but the latter was forced at second on E. Smith's hot shot to Edwards. Then Dunham crashed a shot to left center for two bases on which Smith padded to third and both registered when Cooper came through with a safe shot to the middle garden on which he was caught and run down trying for second.

Freds, skilled sidewheeler, was effective all the way although the enemy kept pecking away at his delivery and garnered seven hits he was never in danger at any stage. The Selbys scored in three of the seven rounds, never succeeding in bunching their hits in any one inning as whenever they became threatening Freds simply put on the brakes and checked any and all efforts of the batters to get on familiar terms with his shoos. Grimm's error on Cooper's boulder and Fannin's tremendous triple gave the losers their first tally in the second. Another came in the third when Weber singled to center for a starter and was forced at second when he failed to go down on Edwards' looping fly to middle which Kerner muffed but got Weber at second for a force out. Elliott was erased on a fine play by Monk who

NONUNION HONEYMOONING

HAS Samuel Gompers had a nonunion honeymoon? The Detroit Federation of Labor suspects as much. Its members have looked for the union label and have failed to find it. They charge that the president of the American Federation of Labor spent the first two days of his honeymoon at an open shop hotel. While there, they say, he and his bride were served with food by nonunion waiters. More, the very food itself was prepared by nonunion cooks.

The Detroiters refuse to be placated by the consoling thought that a bridegroom is oblivious of all but his bride; that each honeymoon means a world recreated for two alone, and that the only kind of a union that really counts with young love is the parson's kind. No, they are inclined to believe all that is mushy sentiment. They think Mr. Gompers should have torn himself from the side of his bride at least long enough to look up a closed shop hotel; that conjugal affection is all very well, but a union button on a waiter or cook is much better.

HOLDING ON TO THEIR WEAPONS

THE allies are likely to take with a considerable allowance of salt the assertion of the Bavarian premier that he cannot comply with the order to disarm the civil guards because of the pressure of public opinion.

The German authorities have persistently refused to carry out this provision of the disarmament terms. All sorts of excuses for nonfulfillment have been made. At Spa last July the Germans said disarmament would be complete within six months. But when on the expiration of that period the allies asked how about Bavaria, they were told that it was necessary to keep the guards equipped to combat bolshevism. Last January Marshal Foch declared the Germans had violated their agreements not only concerning disarmament, but the clauses concerning the reduction of troops. At that time the "safety police" and the bourgeois militia constituted several hundred thousand men—a veritable reserve army.

History has such a way of repeating itself that suspicious that Germany may be up to her old game of 1807 may be warranted. The treaty of Tilsit imposed by Napoleon provided that the Prussian army should not exceed 42,000 men. The Prussians complied with the letter but not the spirit of the provision by a continuous procedure of replacing trained men with recruits. When a few years later Napoleon encountered disaster in Russia, the Prussian people were ready to rise en masse for the war of liberation. Now the Bavarian premier is saying that the people demand the maintenance of the armed guards for their protection, and a year ago he said the guards were needed to suppress an uprising of the people.

Word comes from Paris that the "big army" proposals are winning popular favor in France. There is to be an army of 450,000 on a peace footing, supplemented by huge artillery and air forces. France is taking no chances of another invasion even at the risk of being denounced as "militaristic."

A KEY THAT OPENS MANY DOORS

THE classified advertisement when published in the daily newspaper not infrequently shows a "pulling power" astonishing even to those who are familiar with what can be accomplished through this agency. Though occupying little space and inconspicuous both as to position and size of the type used, every want ad in the daily newspaper is read by hundreds of persons. And in that number there will almost certainly be some who are interested in the advertiser's announcement, no matter what it may be.

It is not surprising, therefore, to find the classified columns being put to strange uses. One of the most novel is revealed in the report that an eminent psychologist, desirous of making a sociological study of women occupying high school and financial position, used want ads in American and British newspapers as a means of getting into touch with such persons.

This suggests that more extensive use might be made of the classified advertisement as an adjunct to science. If information is desired and there are people who can furnish it, it is practically certain that a want-ad will reach them. It may be desired to buy something or sell something, to obtain a situation or to obtain help, to recover something lost or discover the owner of something found; whatever it is, the classified advertisement is likely to bring it within reach if anything can do it.

YANKEE TARS ON YANKEE SHIPS

AMERICANS may congratulate themselves that the United States, after having occupied for half a century a position near the bottom of the list of the great seafaring nations, is now once more near the top. The necessities of the World War led us to build a great fleet of merchant vessels flying the Stars and Stripes. Those ships were manned for the most part by foreigners at first, because American sailors were not available; we had neglected the sea so long that we had comparatively few seamen. But a change has taken place. Slowly and steadily Yankee tars are being found for Yankee ships.

The sea service bureau of the United States shipping board is to be thanked for this. Through its policy of giving preference to American applicants for jobs it has succeeded, Admiral Benson announces, in raising the proportion of Americans on shipping board vessels from 10 per cent in March, 1917, to 80 per cent in March, 1921. This is gratifying for sentimental reasons, but also has practical importance. The sea, with American ships once more plying it, offers jobs to American workmen. Wages earned by these men will stay in the United States and be of benefit to other Americans.

REDISCOVERING THE ROCKIES

By Frederic J. Haskin

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 7.—More than a million Americans will spend their vacations in the Rockies this year, according to an estimate by Stephen T. Mather, of the National Park Service, who says that the automobile, the railroads, and the automobile associations are co-operating to make these vacations as inexpensive and pleasant as possible.

Reduced rates in the government hotels in the National Parks and great improvements in the roads and trails throughout the National Parks and Forests are the government contributions. The railroads are offering reduced round trip rates to points in the Rockies. The automobile associations are ready to tell the tourist how to reach his chosen destination over the best roads.

These first aids to modern motorists, and the growing number of those who take advantage of them are evidence that the Rocky Mountain playground is coming into its own as a conservator of the public health and a means of keeping the Americans of the great eastern cities in touch with the primitive.

It will probably be another generation or so before the American people fully realize what a boon they have in the great government-controlled areas of western mountainland. Here is a wild natural playground larger than most of the European states, which will always remain a public playground—at least as long as our government stands. There is nothing else like it in the world.

More Room Needed
Of course, there are other natural playground areas in the United States which are delightful—New England, the Adirondacks, all the Atlantic coastal resorts, the Poconos. But these are to the Rockies as a postage stamp on a large envelope. Every hotel and camp in them is filled to capacity every year, and every year the crowd grows. Furthermore, only small parts of these areas are state-owned, which means that wealthy persons have bought up large parts of them and converted them into private hunting and fishing preserves. The areas where the poor man may wander free, and do as he pleases, are restricted.

In the Rockies, a different order obtains. If you will look at a map of the west, you will see that from Denver to Frisco, and from the Canadian border to the Mexican border, about a third of the whole country is covered with large green spots indicating National Forests and Parks. This means that all of these green-tinted areas belong to the people of the United States as a whole, and are free to all of them on equal terms. In the National Forests, open land and streams may be homesteaded or rented from the government, but the forest lands, which form by far the greater part of the area, are open to all on the same terms. Any one may rent a patch of ground big enough to build him a summer home upon, but he cannot control any large areas of land. Every one can fish, hunt and camp where he pleases, provided only he obeys the fish and game laws and does his part to prevent forest fires.

And the area thus open to all who seek sport, health, rest, is enough to accommodate all the vacationists of a nation twice as large as ours. Some parts of this area are at present almost unexplored. Most of it is mountain forest, which can never be converted into cities or farms. This is a permanent wilderness which has been taken in hand by a great government before industry had a chance to destroy its forests or private wealth to monopolize its charms.

The Neglected Rockies
Distance and inaccessibility have kept eastern Americans out of the Rockies ever since their discovery. They have always been thought of in the east as something remote, wild and uncouth. It is almost exactly 100 years since the first white man penetrated into the Rockies by way of what later became the Santa Fe Trail. And it is less than half a century since it became possible to reach them by railroad. Even after the railroads had crossed the continent, California, with its charming climate and great industrial opportunities gained vastly more by them than the Rockies did. There are probably 20 persons in the East today who have crossed the Rockies on the way to the Pacific Coast for every one who has stopped in the mountains.

Yellowstone, with its spectacular natural features and great herds of wild animals, has been long a gathering place for travelers from all over the world, but the great majority of these have come merely to look and move on again. More recently the parks in the vicinity of Denver, and Glacier Park, Montana, have become tourist centers. Great hotels have been built, with golf links, tennis courts, high prices, social atmosphere, and all the other perquisites of American tourist life.

But by far the greater part of the Rocky Mountain region offers you none of these luxuries. What it offers you is a splendid chance to pitch your own tent or build your own shack in a really wild country where the fishing is still good, where there are no fences and few neighbors. Provided this is the sort of thing you seek, the Rockies are not at all inaccessible. Even with railroad rates what they are, the round trip fares are moderate. And you can always join the caravan of jolly pilgrims that move over the great transcontinental highways, and lights again the long-forgotten campfires of the pioneers.

New-York-Day-By-Day

BY O. O. MCINTYRE

NEW YORK, June 6.—There is a glumly side to the stark individualism of this mighty metropolis. Lying like so many ants on a great ant hill the tragedies around us are tragically impersonal. A chorus girl burns her throat with cressets in the same building! Few even ask her name. A discouraged and friendless man mopes up the front steps of a subway express. The crowds gaze for awhile and turn away when the ambulance calls.

The other day on Eighth Avenue a little knot stood in a doorway of a cheap apartment house. The undertaker's wagon had just left. A reporter friend of mine from headquarters came out and faintly lighted a cigarette. I ask him the trouble. "Cheap Suicide," he meant no disrespect. It was only one of the many tragedies he faced in a day and he meant that it had no great news value—only a line or so.

We stepped into a dingy room with kitchenette. About the bathroom were sprawled opiates, wood alcohol and formaldehyde, half consumed, those fearsome outlets from life's irritants in the uncharted blackness. Dirty-faced children were romping in the gas lit halls. On a stairway a shawled woman was quarreling about a 25 cent gas meter and through an open doorway a coatless man was devouring his food wolfishly.

And this squalor, life ran on placidly. The crooked streets of Chinatown have their daily travails. A solid dove who has cast her lot with the human dress puts a pistol to her head. A thin cloud of blue smoke. A few seconds of undisturbed jabbering. The student Chinese do not inquire and they look blankly at the excited visitors who may be touring in the yip wags. No one seems to care. That intangible fellowship with human misery does not assert itself in their alien bosoms.

So many ants! One going out here and there is lightly missed. The kindly sympathy, the neighborly help of the Gopher Primitives are surprised.

Old slants on New Yorkers: One of the most famous dramatists is hampered by an unfortunate stammer. The man who is perhaps the highest priced surgeon in town rolls his own cigarettes. An author who writes fiction about deeds of bravery has a phobia about walking on the streets alone. He is always escorted by his secretary. The manager of one of the largest hotels has never eaten in his main dining room. Two members of a theatrical firm have not spoken to each other for nine years.

More slang peculiar to New York. "He Ritized me!" Meaning that he gave her a naughty stare. And "pulling the old Plaza stuff!"—meaning the same thing.

New York hears that Elsie Janis has achieved her big ambition in Paris. She is appearing at the Apollo Theatre in a French play and speaks French without a trace of an American accent. It has been a number of years now since Miss Janis left America flat for Europe. Some of her friends say she will not come back save for an occasional appearance. Her home near Tarrytown is reported to have been sold recently.

The Poppies of the War

During the second battle of Ypres in 1915, a Canadian soldier wrote the poem which made the poppy the Memorial Day flower. He was John D. McCrae. We say "was," for he too fell in 1918. His lines follow:

We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields; the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly,
Scarce heard amidst the guns below.
We are the dead. Short days ago,
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.

Take up our quarrel with the foe!
To you from falling hands we throw
The torch. Ye yours to hold it high!
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

Who can read such lines and doubt that the emotions of men rule the world? The triumphs of intellect are mighty, the cool, deliberate purposes of peoples are a prodigious power, but when great and decisive things are done in the world irresistible emotions are behind them. A man who can read such lines as the foregoing and feel no emotion surging in his heart, is dead so far as what is best in human life is concerned.

The Antiquity of Man

Seribner's refers to the oldest "unmistakable relic of a man" as being the lower jaw of a human found in the Maier sands near Heidelberg. Its age is estimated at 230,000 years.

Prof. Fiske on "The Arrival of Man in Europe," more than hints at the existence of man in the Pliocene epoch, which closed 100,000 years ago. Human relics have been found in the Thames valley in geological strata formed 240,000 years ago.

Most readers are interested in these scientific conclusions, not so much because of the vast stretches of time they reveal, as for the enormous variations between them and the Biblical chronology, which is that of the "best Christian scholarship." It has varied from fixing the Creation at 4004 years before Christ (Usher) to 20,000 B. C. (Huxford). Usher dates the Flood 2345 B. C. and Huxford 10,000 B. C. But without disrespect the Christian chronology, so far as it relates to the creation of man and such events as the Flood, cannot stand under the revelations of scientists. Readers who have a curiosity to learn how men arrive at conclusions about dates that go back hundreds of thousands of years, but do not wish to wade through technical works requiring great scientific learning for their comprehension, may find intensely interesting and easily comprehended discussions of the matter in Prof. Fiske's "Excursions of an Evolutionist," printed thirty years ago by Houghton, Mifflin & Company. It contains a series of fourteen essays on intensely interesting subjects which appeal to intelligent men and women.

The Difference

In his memorial address in the Virginia church of which Washington was a vestryman, President Harding said: "America fought to preserve the rights of the Republic and to maintain the civilization which we had such a part in making; and in that service we have rendered tribute not only to that cause, but also to the highest ideals of humanity."

This utterance marks the distinction between the present administration and its predecessor. The former administration favored the creation of a superstate to which America would pledge its financial and military strength in world government. The present administration would hold American interests paramount over those of the world at large.

The Soldier in Politics

He is there already. In a few years he will be swarming all through our political life—to the glory, efficiency and prosperity of both government and people.

Ex-service men include three members of the Cabinet, twenty-five congressmen, and many federal appointees. A fair start in the Federal line for those who fought for American rights and independence from foreign domination of any kind or nature.

In a number of states some 300 soldier men are in legislatures, purifying the chambers with a wholesome and patriotic atmosphere. They are a mere sergeants' squad compared with those who will have political authority in a few years.

Q. What causes the Aurora Borealis? M. W.

Scientists have never determined. A. Scientists have never determined with certainty what causes the Aurora Borealis. There seems to be no doubt that it is the result of electrical discharges through the upper regions of the atmosphere. It is known to be associated in some way with the magnetism of the earth, and the occurrence of sunspots has been thought to have some connection with its appearance.

Q. Did many of our soldiers die of pneumonia during the war? G. L. A.

A. The War Department says that pneumonia killed more soldiers of the United States forces than were killed in battle. It says that 83.6 per cent of the deaths from disease were caused by pneumonia.

Q. Can you tell me who wrote the song "Dixie" and when? W. F. R.

A. Daniel Decatur Emmett (1831-1905) composed a song by the name of Dixie as a "walk around" for Brant's minstrels in 1859. It was first sung at the McManis' Hall in New York City. The Confederates first sang it at the inauguration of Jefferson Davis at Montgomery, February 18, 1862, and thereafter it became distinctively the song of secession.

Q. Is it true that a snake will not harm one if it is not molested? F. S.

A. The Department of Agriculture says that the King Cobra of Asia has been known to follow and attack persons, and the large constricting snakes of the tropics also at times are aggressive. The poisonous snakes of the United States usually do not attack men unless molested.

Q. Will you tell me what shellac is made from? N. M. I.

A. Shellac is obtained from the lac insect, which lives upon the twigs of certain trees. It becomes covered with a secretion, which protects the insect and its eggs, and this secretion is the shellac of commerce.

Q. What mourning should a married woman wear for a parent? E. G. K.

A. Emily Holt says that a married woman should wear mourning for a parent at least one year. It is considered better taste to wear mourning for a year and six months, and then go into second mourning. Second mourning consists of costumes of crepe de chene or lusterless silk, and hats trimmed

WHO'S WHO

In The Days News

LORD JULIAN H. G. BYNG

The appointment of Lord Julian H. G. Byng as governor general of Canada, is highly pleasing to both Canadians and Britishers. Byng's record as a soldier has won him a high place in the hearts of his countrymen.

He has served his country as a military man for thirty-eight years.

General Byng is the seventh son of the second Earl of Strathford, and was born in September, 1862. In 1882 he married the only child of Sir Richard, Baronet, K. C. V. O. M. A. E. Evelyn.

She is the author of "Barriers," "Anne of the Marshland," and other English novels rather well known in America. The Byng-house is Thorpe Hall, Thorpe-Soken, Essex.

When General Byng was twenty-one he joined the Tenth Royal Hussars, and within a year had started his career of active service. He served in the Sudan expedition of 1884, being present at the action of El Teb and Tamai. He distinguished himself in the pursuit of De Wet during the Boer war, and finished the campaign with the rank of colonel.

He landed in Belgium in October, 1914, in command of the Third cavalry division, and he accompanied the immortal Seventh division in the retreat from Antwerp to Ypres. Throughout all the great drama of Ypres, Byng's cavalry division played an important and sometimes decisive part.

In May, 1915, General Byng succeeded General Allenby in command of the cavalry corps, and the second battle of Ypres found him on familiar ground. Then came the interval of the Dardanelles, where he took over the command of the Ninth corps, and in February, 1916, he returned to France, first to command the Seventeenth corps, then the Canadian corps.

During the latter years of the war he became known as one of the most brilliant of corps commanders. It was under his leadership that the Canadian troops fought so gallantly at the taking of Courcellette, in many a desperate action on the Thiepval Ridge, in the battle of the Somme, and in the storming of Vimy Ridge in April, 1917.

He was Not a High Flier
A Swede came down from the woods and, entering a saloon, called for a drink of good old squirrel whiskey. Said the bartender:
"We're all out of squirrel whiskey, but we've got some good Old Crow." "Yudas Priest!" exclaimed the Swede. "I no want to fly, I just want to hop around a little."

Reason For Giving
A weary looking tramp begged for something to eat at the back door of a suburban home and was given a whole plum cake. In less than two hours he was back on the same door-step.

"Lady," said he when the good housewife answered the timid knock, "would you be kind enough to give me the recipe for that cake you handed me this morning?"

"For goodness' sake, man," exclaimed the astonished housewife, "what do you want that recipe for?" "To settle a bet, lady," answered the tramp. "My partner says you use three cupsful of cement to one of sugar, and I claim you only use two and a half."

More Important
"Do you say that your hens 'sit' or 'set'?" asked the precise pedagogue of the busy housewife.

"It never matters to me what I say," was the quick reply. "What concerns me is to learn, when I hear the hen cackling, whether she is laying or lying."—Farm and Fireside.

Sister's new beau had hardly got seated on the parlor sofa when little brother brought him a glass of water and tendered it to him very politely. The young man drank it and returned the glass to the small boy, who looked disgusted.

"He don't either," he said to his sister.

"Don't what, dear?"

"Why, he don't drink any different from anyone else, and pop said he drank like a fish."

My Pa, a Doctor Man

It's very often that my pa stays out all night long: They say it ought to worry ma, 'Cause it's 'juss' awful wrong.

But he don't care for all 'em folks Say 'bout it, an' he can 'Jus' sit an' laugh at all their jokes, 'Cause he's a doctor man.

He talks to other women all the time, 'Nen he laughs at 'em An' 'Jus' keeps it up and splits his sides. 'Cause he's a doctor man.

His neighbors says he takes 'em ride 'Nen he laughs at 'em An' 'Jus' keeps it up and splits his sides. 'Cause he's a doctor man.

He smiles so nice and holds their hands, An' asks 'em how they feel, 'Nen women sneak 'round, 'Jus' sly as mice, An' gives ma a long spiel, 'Dont how bad pa is, an' 'Nen she 'Jus' laughs and giggles, an' Tells him when he comes home, 'Cause, you see, he's a doctor man.

Just before Easter a gentleman out motoring with a friend noticed that they were crawling along a thoroughfare where previously they had been accustomed to go at full speed. He asked why the car was run so slowly.

"Why," explained the driver of the car, with perfect naivete, "everybody's carrying home garden tools now and you can't run over a man without risking a puncture."

He Was Not a High Flier
A Swede came down from the woods and, entering a saloon, called for a drink of good old squirrel whiskey. Said the bartender:
"We're all out of squirrel whiskey, but we've got some good Old Crow." "Yudas Priest!" exclaimed the Swede. "I no want to fly, I just want to hop around a little."

Reason For Giving
A weary looking tramp begged for something to eat at the back door of a suburban home and was given a whole plum cake. In less than two hours he was back on the same door-step.

"Lady," said he when the good housewife answered the timid knock, "would you be kind enough to give me the recipe for that cake you handed me this morning?"

"For goodness' sake, man," exclaimed the astonished housewife, "what do you want that recipe for?" "To settle a bet, lady," answered the tramp. "My partner says you use three cupsful of cement to one of sugar, and I claim you only use two and a half."

More Important
"Do you say that your hens 'sit' or 'set'?" asked the precise pedagogue of the busy housewife.

"It never matters to me what I say," was the quick reply. "What concerns me is to learn, when I hear the hen cackling, whether she is laying or lying."—Farm and Fireside.

White—What sort of a fellow is Brown?

Green—He very much resembles a postage stamp.

White—Why?

Green—He sticks to one thing till he gets there.

Applying The Acid Test
Sister's new beau had hardly got seated on the parlor sofa when little brother brought him a glass of water and tendered it to him very politely. The young man drank it and returned the glass to the small boy, who looked disgusted.

"He don't either," he said to his sister.

"Don't what, dear?"

"Why, he don't drink any different from anyone else, and pop said he drank like a fish."
